Prevention and Early Intervention Program

2009 - 2010 Academic Year
Frankfort and Naperville, Illinois

What is a prevention and early intervention program?

The program is designed to provide education, support and direction to families and their children who may be at risk of more serious involvement with alcohol and other drugs.

Parents and youth are offered tools to make a healthy drug-free life a reality. Rosecrance Prevention and Early Intervention Program is a service for families, schools, law enforcement, physicians, agencies and the judicial circuit courts in the Chicagoland area.

WHO WOULD BENEFIT FROM THIS PROGRAM?

A young person who has undergone recent lifestyle changes and his/her parents may benefit by learning the skills necessary to cope effectively with emotional/behavioral difficulties. Recent lifestyle changes may include one or more of the following:

- Increase in school disciplinary actions
- Lower than expected grades
- Decreased interest or participation in extracurricular activities
- Increased tardiness/absenteeism

- Use of or suspected use of alcohol or other drugs
- Dishonesty regarding personal alcohol or other drug use or friend's use
- Less time at home; secretive or evasive concerning whereabouts and activities
- Obvious signs of being under the influence of chemicals such as smelling chemicals on breath or clothing, or altered speech, etc.
- Noticeable change in friends over a short period of time

WHAT ARE THE COMPONENTS OF THE PROGRAM?

The Prevention and Early Intervention Program is an eight hour program consisting of the following:

- A comprehensive assessment
- Two class sessions
- Urine screen
- An individualized exit interview held with the student and parents

WHAT INFORMATION IS PROVIDED IN THE PROGRAM?

Participation in the Rosecrance Prevention and Early Intervention Program classes will increase awareness and understanding of the effects of adolescent drug and/or alcohol use, abuse and dependence on youth and their families.

Class information includes:

- Exploring adolescent attitudes toward tobacco, alcohol and other drug use
  - Family communication skills
  - Trends and stages of adolescent drug and/or alcohol abuse
  - Characteristics of commonly used chemicals
  - Stages of adolescent development
  - Effective disciplinary approaches

REGISTRATION

Youth (12 -18) and their families can call 773.962.1151 to arrange a free consultation. A Rosecrance assessment counselor will review academic, social, legal, emotional and behavioral life areas as well as drug and/or alcohol abuse. Youth and parent concerns are discussed and needs identified. The counselor may recommend this program or another course of action.
