

rosecrance life's waiting

PROVIDING CURRENT TRENDS AND INFORMATION ON SUBSTANCE USE

Adolescent Training List

Rosecrance is your partner in providing substance abuse education, information and training to educators, administrators, social workers, law enforcement officers, medical professionals, parents and other concerned individuals. Our programs are presented by experienced professionals and are adaptable to meet the needs of the audience, organization or format.

Adolescent trainings include:

- Addiction: Environmental Influences and the Family Dynamic
- Early Signs of Adolescent Substance Abuse
- Adolescent Compulsive Behaviors: Addiction and Cutting
- Seeking Safety: The Teenage Girl and Trauma
- The Relation-Shipwreck between Substance Abuse and Eating Disorders
- Self-Sufficient and Responsible Children
- In Harms Way: Dangers on the Internet
- Raising Resilient and Responsible Children and Adolescents
- Fostering Self-Esteem in Children
- Effects of Addiction on the Family
- Hidden in Full View—Current Drug Trends

This is just a brief overview of the programs we can offer in the area of substance abuse education. Contact us with you request and we will help you select the right program for your audience or tailor a presentation to meet your specific needs.

To schedule a training or for information, contact: Kristen Powell, Community Relations Representative at 708.302.9194 or powellk@rosecrance.net